

Fast Friends

Andrew Anderson

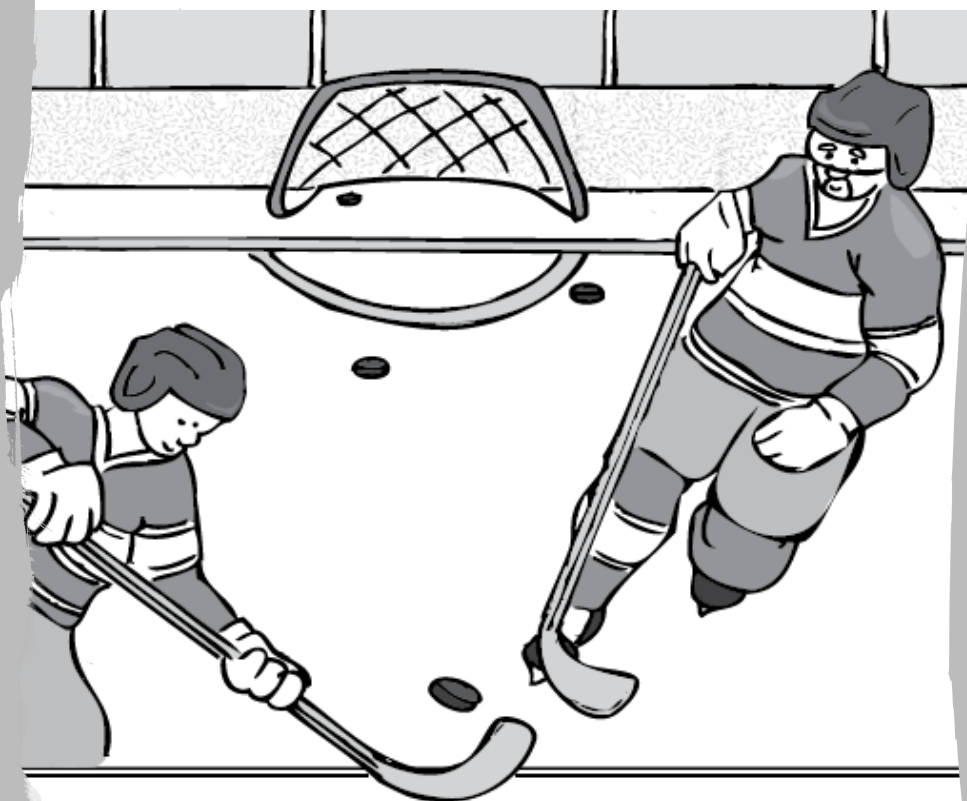

Cole Caulfield

Josh Anderson plays for the Montreal Canadiens. Cole Caufield plays for the Montreal Canadiens. They skate fast. They shoot the puck fast. They are good players.

Josh and Cole are friends.

They score a lot of goals. They pass the puck a lot. They help each other. They know helping each other helps the team win.

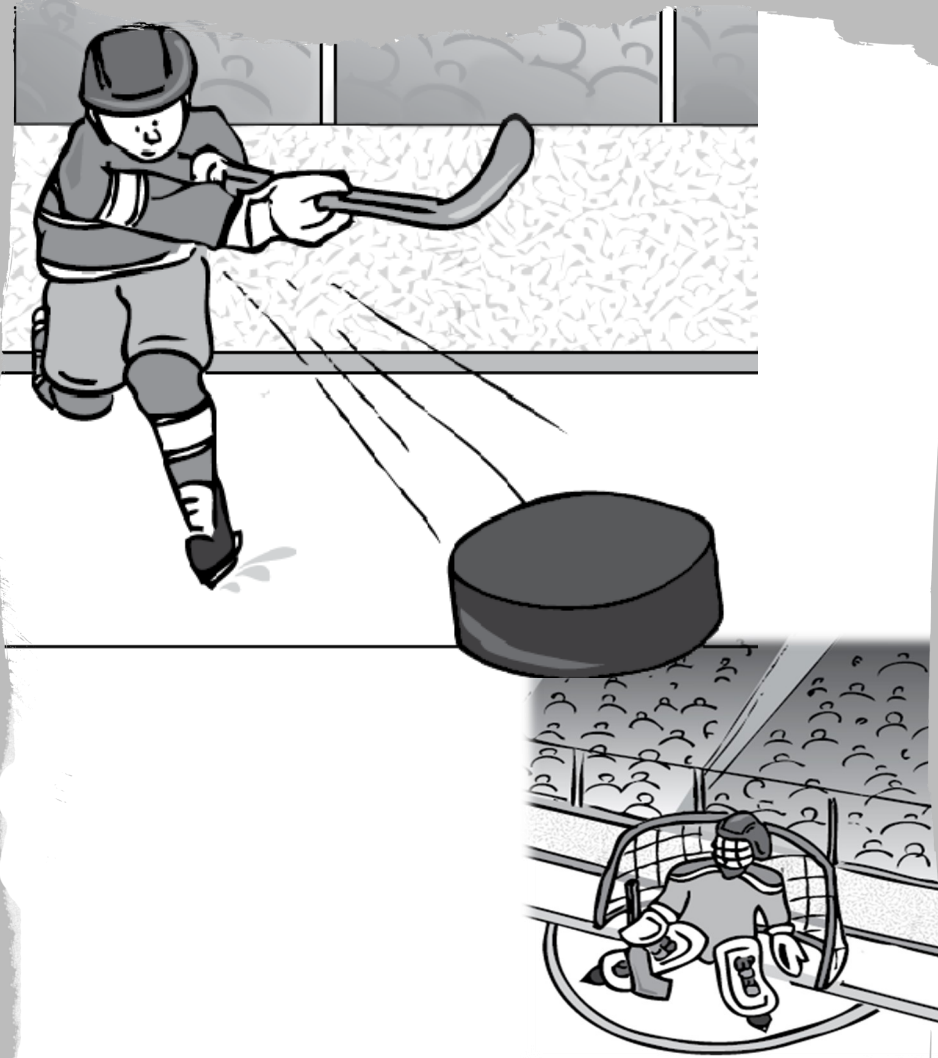

One day, the score is tied. Cole has the puck. He skates fast at the other team's net. Josh skates fast beside him.

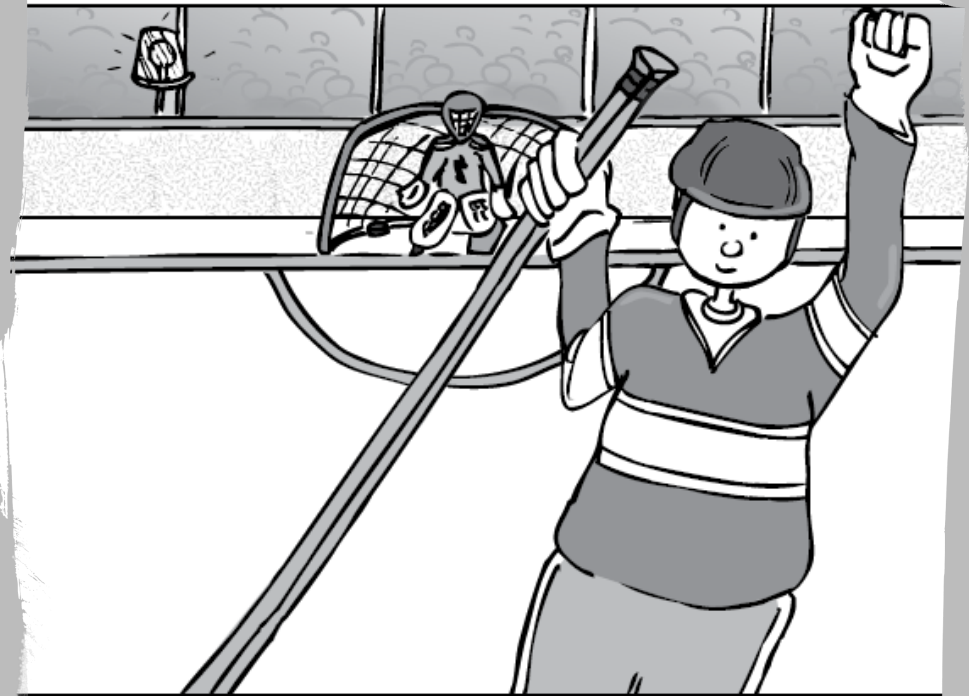

Cole passes the puck to Josh.
Josh skates at the other team's net.

The other team tries to take the puck away from Josh.
Josh passes the puck back to Cole.

Cole sees the other team's goalie. He takes a slapshot.

It is a hard shot. It is a fast shot, as fast as lightning. The goalie can't even see the puck. He misses it. The puck goes in the net. Cole scores! Montreal wins!

Josh skates to Cole. "Good goal," Josh says. "Nice pass," Cole says.

All the Montreal players cheer. They see that Josh and Cole helped each other. "Great play," they shout to Josh and Cole.

Josh and Cole had co-operated. That means they helped each other. And they helped the Montreal Canadiens win.
